
S.A. Citrique Belge N.V.

Trisodium Citrate Dihydrate

Manufacturing Principle

Trisodium Citrate dihydrate is manufactured by neutralization of fermentatively prepared citric acid with a sodium base, e.g. sodium carbonate or sodium hydroxide in water.

The isolated product is dried, milled, sieved to the desired particle size, and then filled into the containers.